DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

1. The species of the claimed invention in claims 1-6 and 22 comprising forming the island-shaped semiconductor, gate insulating film on and across an intermediate region and exposing ends regions, forming gate thereon, the gate being retarded from edges to define a channel region under the gate, offset regions below the gate insulating layer between the channel and the end regions, implanting dopant into the offset regions through the gate insulating film to form lightly doped regions, implanting dopant into end regions directly to form heavily doped source/drain region having higher concentration.

2. The species of the claimed invention in new claims 23-28 comprising forming island shaped semiconductor layers on substrate having insulative surface, forming gate insulating layer thereon, forming gate electrode on the insulating film, the gate being retarded from the edges of the gate insulating film to define channel region and offset region adjacent to the channel region under the gate insulating film, implanting dopant into first regions of the semiconductor layer outside of said gate insulating film directly by ion implantation to form lightly doped region, implanting dopant into outer regions within said first regions in each of the semiconductor layer directly to form heavily doped source/drain region having higher concentration.

3. The species of the claimed invention in new claim 29 comprising forming island-shaped semiconductor layers, forming gate insulating film on the substrate and covering the semiconductor layers, forming gate electrode layer thereon, the gate electrode being retarded from edges of the gate insulating film, implanting dopant into first regions at outsides of said gate insulating film and regions designated for the offset regions under said gate insulating film directly to form lightly doped region, implanting dopant into outer regions within the first regions directly to form heavily doped source draing regions having higher concentration.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
